About Me

I am Mahir. I was born 03.05.2003. I am a qualified web developer for websites. At the same time, I am constantly developing and learning new technologies in IT. The Front-end is my favorite profession. I can make a decision in any situation, work under pressure in any situation, and have problem-solving skills.

Experience

As an experiment, I would like to present some of my individual projects. Websites:
1) https://mahirhasanli.app
2) https://react-tailwind-typescript.app
3) https://test-project-tau-eight.app
4) https://diploma-project.app -
 You can get acquainted with my personal works by visiting the links. These experiences will increase day by day and compliment my personal development.
